RESPIRATORY PROTECTION, INCLUDING FIT TEST

Health & Safety: Train. Share. Succeed.

Price Contact us for more information.

Date Contact us for more information.

From 2.5 to 3 hours

DETAILS

Audience
Anyone who has to work with respiratory protection.

Participants Range
04 participants/08 participants

Recurrence
2 years

Prerequisites
Have a freshly shaved face.

Required Material
Have your own mask.

Description
This theoretical and practical training allows participants to acquire the basic knowledge and skills necessary to carry out work requiring wearing respiratory protection.
This training meets the requirements of:
- Federal and provincial health and safety regulations

Objective
Understand the dangers that can contaminate the worker through the respiratory tract.

Conditions
- Understanding of and compliance with company safety rules
- Compliance with health and safety regulations and provincial laws

Training Material
PPT presentation, guides

Methodology
Practical test, written test, simulation, observation

Content
- Laws and regulations applicable to respiratory protection
- Understanding the risks related to poor respiratory protection
- Understanding and applying respiratory protection procedures
- Carrying out a qualitative fit test

Required Equipment
Specialized machinery

Evaluation
Case studies, demonstration, simulations

Certificate issued following the training

Contact training-canada@enercon.de for more information.

ENERCON